Kids for Kids Rehearsal.

As more schools slip through the door like slithery snakes the more nervous I get, bit by bit. I just got bit by fear, another school has come crashing through the dark brown sensor doors.

As the cameras are operating above the glowing gold stage the sound of people talking gets louder and louder, like the sound of roaring lions.

We have just met Nathan King and he has just recently been to Luguru. He's a very great lead singer to have and I think that we all had a great time.
