On Wednesday Ben, Awatea, Raymond, Haka, Akiwa, Keane, Malachi, Jamie and Izaeya all accepted to cheer on for Collegiate at Collegiate School. Ben Lourie (referee) was refereeing fair throughout the whole game. As the whistle blew Christ College attempted a drop kick. Boot. Collegiate sprinted it up and snatched the ball from the ground. Christ's College had some pretty good tacklers and it was outstanding. On the whistle for half time the score was not very good for Collegiate 3 – 0 to Christ's College. Collegiate once again got penalised. 10 more seconds to go and they were losing. The Collegiate school cheers went up for the boys and they all stood up and started a Haka. Boys from Wanganui East School were trapped in the middle and started to join in. The whistle blew for full time. Christ College cheered for themselves, hip horray. The final score was 6 – 0 to Christ College. The next game was in another 40 minutes so the teams that were playing were Wellington College and Nelson College. Wellington College won 5 – 0. We had a great day. We had a superb photo with a referee. By Haka.
